 2. And, to motivate them to draw upon their spiritual source in daily living: "Walk worthy of the vocation with which you were called" (4:1).
- B. The first half of Ephesians lists the Christian's heavenly possessions:
 1. And precious possession they are:
 - a. Adoption.
 - b. Redemption.
 - c. Inheritance.
 - d. Power.
 - e. Life.
 - f. Grace.
 - g. Citizenship.
 - h. The love of Christ.
 2. There are not imperatives in chapters 1-3 which focuses on divine gifts.
- C. Chapters 4-6 include thirty-five directives in the last half of Ephesians that speak of the Christian's responsibility to conduct himself according to God's will.

- D. So, Ephesians begins in heaven, but concludes in the home and other relationships of daily life.
- E. There are two major sections in the book:
 1. The Position of the Christian. (1:1 - 3:21)
 2. The Practice of the Christian (7-10)

THE POSITION OF THE CHRISTIAN. (1:1 - 3:21)

- A. After a two-verse prologue, in one long Greek sentence (1:3-14), Paul extols the triune God for the riches of redemption.
 1. These verses:
 - a. Praise God for choosing us. 1:3-6
 - b. Praise the Son for redeeming us. 1:7-12
 - c. The Spirit for sealing us. 1:13-14
 2. Each member of the Godhead has a role in or salvation.
- B. Before continuing, Paul offers the first of two very significant prayers (1:15-23; 3:14-21)
 1. In the first prayer he asks that the readers receive illumination so that they may come to perceive what is, in fact, true.
 - a. Next, Paul describes the power of God's grace by contrasting their former condition with their present spiritual life in Christ (2:1-10).
 1. This redemption includes Jews , yet also extends to those Gentiles who previously were "strangers from the covenants of promise" (2:12).
 2. In Christ, the two for the first time have become members of one body" (2:11-22).
 3. The truth that Gentiles would become "fellow heirs of the same body" (3:6) was formerly a mystery (not yet revealed) that has now been revealed (3:1-13).
 2. Paul's second prayer (3:14-21) expresses his desire that the readers be strengthened with the power of the Spirit and fully apprehend the love of Christ.

THE PRACTICE OF THE CHRISTIAN. (4:1 - 6:20)

- A. The pivotal verse of the book of Ephesians is Ephesians 4:1 because it draws a sharp line between the doctrinal and the practical sections or divisions of this book. "I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called."
 1. There is a cause-and-effect relationship between chapters 1-3 and 4-6 because of the spiritual walk of a Christian must be rooted in his spiritual wealth.
 2. As Paul emphasized in the book of Romans, behavior does not determine blessing; instead blessing should determine behavior.
- B. Because of the unity of all Christians (Jew and Gentile) in the body of Christ, growth and maturity come from "the effective working by which every part does its share" (4:16)
 1. The involves the exercise of spiritual gifts in love.
 2. Paul exhorts the readers to "put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man" (4:22) and "put on the new man" (4:24) that will be manifested by a walk of integrity in the midst of all people.
 3. They are also to maintain a walk of holiness as children of light (5:1-21).
 4. Every relationship (wives, husbands, children, parents, slaves, and masters) must be transformed by their new life in Christ (5:22 - 6:9)
 5. Paul's colorful description of the spiritual warfare and the armor of God (6:10-20) is followed by a word about Tychicus and then a benediction (6:21-24).
